

INTRODUCTION

Parents and students who are attending Dominican Convent School are asked to understand and implement the philosophy written in this prospectus. Students are expected to develop their spiritual, intellectual, civic, social and physical potential within the Dominican family atmosphere in order to become better citizens. As a result, this prospectus becomes part of the contract signed by parents as they register their children at Dominican Convent School, Bahawalpur.

The students are instructed in all subjects in accordance with the regulations laid down by the directorate of education for schools.

The school maintains a high standard of scholarship and discipline. Therefore the management reserves the right to judge the academic and disciplinary standing of each student in the institution. Since good discipline in the school strengthens parental authority in the home, parents are requested to abide by the decision of the management in these matters.

PURPOSE/PHILOSOPHY/GOALS OF THE DOMINICAN CONVENT SCHOOL, BAHAWALPUR.

Dominican Convent School is a community of faith and learning which exists primarily to create an atmosphere animated by HUMAN principles. This community believes in the dignity of each person which is grounded in God's love for all, in a person's ability to understand in some measures all that exists, and in his or her freedom to respond to the realities of that existence. It endeavors to present the basic human values as the best way of becoming a whole person.

SCHOOL HISTORY:

Dominican Convent School stands on the land purchased by the Bishop of The Catholic Diocese of Multan on behalf of the Dominican Sisters of Our Lady of the Rosary on the 10th day of June 1957 from the Chairman for Baghdad-UI-Jadid Improvement Trust Government of Bahawalpur. The Dominican Convent School started on the 9th of May 1958 as a middle school and became high within the next two years. Each year witnessed an increasing enrollment, and the need for more facilities resulted in construction of Sr. Lydia Monahan O.P. block and finally became a harmonious whole after the construction of Sr. Suzanne Dollan O.P. Block in the new millennium. Dominican Convent School became a High School in 1960, started Cambridge classes in 2000 and stepped forward to Higher Secondary School in 2003. It is owned and operated by the Dominican Sisters of Our Lady of the Rosary. The faculty is composed of experienced, dedicated and highly qualified staff.
